Company: Conrad Consulting Ltd

Location: Hertford

Category: other-general

Fantastic opportunity for an experienced, Revit-proficient Architectural Technician to join market leaders in the Healthcare sector - Hertford.

Join a well-established RIBA chartered Architecture practice in Hertford, known for their expertise in delivering complex Healthcare projects to a host of clients across the country. With over 50 years of experience, this practice sits firmly at the forefront of the industry and is seeking a talented Architectural Technician to become an important part of the successful development of their business.

As an Architectural Technician with this firm, you will gain exposure to multi-million-pound design projects in both the NHS and private sector. You will play a key role in delivering innovative designs that meet the unique needs and challenges of each client. This means that previous experience operating upon Healthcare projects will be highly sought after!

The practice fully values the latest in design technology, including BIM, and requires an Architectural Technician with full proficiency in Revit and experience working at BIM Level 2.

Key Architectural Technician Requirements:

Architectural Technologist Degree or similar relevant qualification

Demonstrable UK industry experience

Experience within UK Healthcare sector - highly desirable

Proficiency with Revit & BIM Level 2 - essential

Excellent communication skills

Full UK driving licence

Strong knowledge of UK planning application process and Building Regulations

In return, the successful Architectural Technician will receive a competitive salary, likely to be in the range of £30-£40k (potentially more for the right candidate), plus benefits.

The practice can offer a desirable working environment with a close-knit team. Located in the centre of Hertford, the office is conveniently close to transport links, shops, gyms, and restaurants.

A fantastic work/life balance will also be on offer with genuine Hybrid working options!

To apply, send your CV and work examples to Joey Waller at Conrad Consulting or call (phone number removed) to discuss this opportunity confidentially.
