Corporate Tax Assistant Manager £65,000 + bonus & benefits London, hybrid working model with 3 office days A specialist, UK-headquartered financial services consultancy business is recruiting an ambitious Assistant Tax Manager to join their high-performing team in the City of London. Reporting to the Senior Corporate Tax Manager, the successful candidate will collaborate within a mid-sized tax team and liaise with wider stakeholders in finance, commercial and investment functions. The successful candidate's responsibilities will be balanced between corporate tax compliance/reporting and corporate/international tax advisory, in accordance with seasonal demands and projects. There is additionally scope for involvement in wider taxes. This is an unusual, quasi in-house opportunity which combines both group tax and market-facing elements. We anticipate this opportunity will best suit the recently qualified tax professional who is interested to move in-house but enjoys the client-facing, commercial aspects of consultancy. The successful candidate: Recently ACA/CTA qualified (or nearing completion) Solid UK corporation tax compliance and advisory experience Some level of tax accounting experience Must be of a client-facing calibre, likely having trained in a Big 4/Top 10 environment Financial services experience considered advantageous
