Did you become an Accountant or Auditor to provide an all-round advisory service to growing businesses? Are you looking for a structured firm offering a better work-life balance whilst keeping the variety of audit, accounts and tax in your role? Are you ready to start building your own portfolio and paving your way towards Partnership? If so, this General Practice Manager role could be the one for you! Our client, a supportive mid-tier general practice firm, are looking for a Manager for their London office. You will have your own portfolio of Creative, Hospitality and Property sector clients and the chance to grow this portfolio almost immediately. With a focus on OMBs, the workload would be a mix of audit, accounts and tax, as well as exposure to ad-hoc advisory projects. Your responsibilities will be: Reviewing WIP on completion of the job and alerting partner to issues on any overruns. Taking full responsibility for the whole client audit, considering planning, fieldwork, and finalisation of the audit. Final review of corporation tax returns and associated schedules ensuring they are accurate. Final review of Accounts preparation. Involvement in Business Development and Networking Events. The successful candidate will: Be ACA/ACCA qualified or equivalent. Have excellent technical knowledge in all areas of accounting, tax and audit. Experience managing a portfolio of clients, including WIP & billing. Demonstrable experience with positive staff management and mentorship.
