Are you looking for a Behaviour Mentor role?

Are you passionate about supporting pupils with SEN needs?

Live local to Westminster?

If you said yes to the above, then this Behaviour Mentor role is for you!

The role - Behaviour Mentor

We are recruiting for a Behaviour Mentor to join an independent specialist school and this role is for immediate start. For this position, you will need to be able to support pupils with their social, emotional, mental and health needs. Due to the needs of the pupils, the ideal Behaviour Mentor will need to have prior experience working with children or young people with SEMH needs.

The school - Behaviour Mentor

This school is a specialist school which caters to children and young people from 11-16 years with social, emotional, and mental health needs. The school is in Westminster and has a specialist unit to support pupils who are on the autism spectrum or who may require a quieter learning space. The school's core purpose is to offer every student a safe, stimulating, and fun learning environment.
