Are you a SEN Teaching Assistant who is looking for a change of environment?

Do you have experience working with Autism and Complex Needs?

Would you be willing to work in a SEN school setting?

If you answered yes to the above, this may be the SEN Teaching Assistant role for you!

The Role – SEN Teaching Assistant

For this role, I am looking for an enthusiastic SEN Teaching Assistant who is confident in working with young learners who have Autism and Complex Needs. The role will require you to work closely with the students, providing academic and emotional support in order to build a rapport with them. Due to the needs of the students, the ideal SEN Teaching Assistant will need to have experience supporting learners with Autism and Complex Needs in a school setting.

SEN School – SEN Teaching Assistant

This thriving SEN school is located in Uxbridge and caters for students aged between 4-19 years old with Special Educational Needs such as ASD, Complex Needs and SEMH needs. The school is very small and has around 210 students therefore, class sizes vary from 8-10 pupils along with 2 teaching assistants in class. This school has good transport links and on-site parking available.
