IT Business Relationship Manager, Professional Services, Business Change Consultant, Stakeholder Management, London

IT Business Relationship Manager required to work for a large Professional Services business based in Central London. However, do to Covid-19, this will initially be based from home. When normality resumes, you will be based in Central London but with a flexible schedule between office and home working.

We are looking for an individual with 'some BRM exposure' who ideally has experience of working within Professional Services – if not, previous companies MUST have been of a significant size with clear exposure to difficult Stakeholder Management. Securing this role will be down to your experience, personality, resilience, attitude, ambition and good examples of hardened 'battle scars'!

PLEASE READ BEFORE APPLYING: WE DON'T WANT SOMEONE FROM A BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP BACKGROUND WHO HAS A PORTFOLIO OF CLIENTS TO MANAGE, SUCH AS KYC ETC. WE WANT AN INTERNAL BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP MANAGER WHO MANAGES INTERNAL RELATIONSHIPS, HAS EXPOSURE TO CHANGE / TRANSFORMATION AND CAN COMMUNICATE EFFECTIVELY TO BRING KEY DEPARTMENTS TOGETHER HARMONIOUSLY THROUGH BUSINESS CHANGE!!! IDEALLY IF YOU ARE BRMP QUALIFIED, THAT WOULD BE A BONUS...

The Business Relationship Management team should successfully act as a bridge between the IT service function and its customer base to ensure that IT services are understood and adopted...and new opportunities and challenges are understood and engaged back into the IT function. This function should also look to help develop business streams by understanding the business problems and offer innovative IT solutions.

This is a fantastic opportunity and salary is dependent upon experience.
