Care Assistants

Whether you're assisting a nurse, getting involved with a daily activity, filling in vital paperwork or lending someone a hand to eat their lunch, you'll make all the residents you care for feel safe, comfortable and secure. In other words, you'll make them feel right at home.

Requirements:

To join us, you won't necessarily need to have experience working with older people in residential care (although this would be ideal). You will need to be flexible, patient, caring, organised and great with people. As a team player, you can follow guidelines and policies easily, and will have good written skills, as you will need to write up care plans. You'll need to be flexible to work shifts on a rota basis, and alternate weekends.

You will also need to evidence you right to work in the UK – Unfortunately there is no VISA sponsorship available. Package:

Competitive payrates dependant on locations 40-48 hrs pw permanent contract.

Accommodation and relocation package available! Benefits:

- Overtime available
- Career progression
- Training provided including Care Certificate level 2
- Salary review
- Employee perks and discounts to retailers
- Long term service awards
- Award winning employer

Locations:

Suffolk

Gloucestershire

Oxfordshire
