Company: First Contact Chefs

Location: Dorset

Category: other-general

This stylish and elegant hotel is searching for an enthusiastic Chef de Partie to join their kitchen brigade working with a highly talented Head Chef. As a Chef de Partie you will be an integral part of the team to lead a section in the kitchen creating the finest dishes and working to the highest of standards. The key focus of your role is to share your passion for cooking and food with your team and help train and develop them. You will be working in the more informal restaurant within the establishment, however, you will still be required to produce dishes to a high standard.

Main Duties: Plan and oversee day-to-day running of your section to meet service requirements. Follow all health and hygiene standards. Supervise and lead a team of Commis and Demi Chefs. Sample, smell and observe food to ensure conformance to recipes and standards. Take orders from the Sous Chef and give tasks to Commis and Demi Chefs and check that they are carried out in the correct manner. Write daily wine, dry storage, food requisitions and kitchen transfers on the appropriate forms for the approval of the Sous Chef in order to achieve the high stock rotation desired in the section. Maintain a clean and efficient kitchen section and ensure maximum utilization of food. Participate in food production. Portion meats, fish, vegetables and desserts and utilize food surpluses to control food costs. Communicate with and assist back-of-the-house personnel to maintain efficient food production. Conduct daily food line inspections in section to ensure quality is maintained.

Requirements: Ideally NVQ levels 2&3. Experience working in an AA Rosette establishment. Hotel or Restaurant background. Good knowledge of cooking techniques and styles. Good understanding of food, hygiene and safety. COSHH knowledge. Good verbal and written English. Computer literate. The right to work in the United Kingdom.
