Working as a Chef in the UK

Becoming a PGL Chef is to join a first class catering operation. We want to harness your love for food and cooking to deliver meals which excite our guests' palates as much as ascending our climbing walls excites their imaginations. The quality, variety, presentation and standard of the food served at our modern activity centres has developed as a result of the creativity and invention of our Chefs – and the guarantee that there are always hungry mouths to feed!

As a Chef you will work under the direction of your Head Chef or Catering Manager, and have the opportunity to develop your all round catering skills, including prep, cooking, ordering and accounting of stock and staff management. From cooked breakfasts to packed lunches on the beach, you'll have the chance to use your experience of working in a high volume catering environment to excel and progress within PGL's catering operation.
