ZERO HOUR / CONSULTANT Residential Valuation Surveyor

Trading since 1989, e.surv Chartered Surveyors is the UK's number one residential surveyor and the largest provider of property risk expertise and residential surveying services. To put it into numbers, we complete more than one property inspection every 12 seconds and employ over 600 surveyors from Land's End to John O'Groats and Northern Ireland. This gives us the flexibility to offer nationwide coverage combined with invaluable local knowledge.

We're part of the , which includes household names and , as well as the mortgage network . We work with lenders, intermediaries, social housing entities and estate agents in addition to private customers.

We are seeking additional Zero Hours and Consultant Residential Surveyors to support the growing volume of Mortgage Valuation work that the UK's leading lenders rely on e.surv to complete. Because of our size and the large network of lenders that we service, we're able to offer the most concise postcode coverage available amongst any of the corporate brands, which means less travel time between surveys and more time available to complete the day job.

Because work/life balance and flexibility is an important part of our approach, we welcome applications from surveyors interested in opportunities on a Consultancy or Flexible Hours agreement. We can offer an excellent fee split for those interested in working on a ZH or Consultancy basis.
