Cover Supervisor

Are you keen on or considering a career in education? Are you planning on doing a PGCE / becoming a teacher? This is the ideal opportunity for somebody who who wants to build their confidence and get a feel for what it would be like to be a teacher!

Protocol Education are currently recruiting for personell who can help inspire and encourage secondary school students. Some of the children you will be supervising may have complex needs including ASD, SEMH, EHCP, and behavioural support. You will be required to aid in the daily activities of the classroom and support the children in their classwork. You will provide 1:1 support and create a positive atmosphere. This is great experience if you are interested in branching into education.

Your role will include covering the classroom whilst the teacher is vacant. Depending on your preference, you can be part-time (on call) supply, or full-time as many schools have numerous cover supervisors on campus for lesson covering. You will be the only person in the classroom, however, you will primarily be there for supervision and help, you won't be teaching. You must have a good understanding and ability of behaviour management.

Ideal Candidate

Experience working with children with SEND.

Excellent communication skills.

A passion for education and creating an environment in which the students can improve their studies.

The ability to engage students, improve confidence, and positively influence a fun and supportive learning process.

Ability to manage classroom behaviour.
