Company: MRP Group

Location: London Area

Category: other-general

My Company and I have recently partnered up with a Leading IT Consultancy focusing exclusively with the latest technologies within Cyber Security. We are currently seeking Cyber Security Engineers with expertise in IT, Networking, and Development. This will incorporate comprehensive cross-training programs. Offering long-term contracts and competitive rates, our client is searching to attract people from a background in Cyber Security and Identity Access Management to work within the defense sector. Experience with enterprise networks including next gen firewall, network segmentation technology and internet connectivity. Experience in management of next-generation firewalls (Fortinet, Palo Alto, Checkpoint, etc.) and VPN solutions (Site to Site and Remote Access).
