Job description

Are you an Early Careers Teacher who is looking for work in Leicester?

I am recruiting for a wide variety of teachers in all year groups to teach in our Primary schools. We have many roles starting now and also in January that are long term and require a teacher 5 days a week. We also have more flexible supply roles where you can work whatever days suit you. This is a great opportunity to become a well-established member of staff in some excellent schools across Leicester and to get your foot in the door at the beginning of your career.

As an agency we work with many schools across Leicester/Leicestershire (including surrounding areas) and all members of staff that are placed into these schools always have positive feedback.

This full-time teaching role will have expectations of whoever is taken on. The following is expected:

- * A confident understanding of curriculum
- * Communication skills
- * Assess, mark and plan lessons if necessary
- * Provide progressive reports
- * Attend meetings

* Attend parents evenings

In return you will get from us:

- * A highly skilled, dedicated consultant with and in-depth knowledge of the local supply market
- * Access to Team Teach Positive Behaviour Management training
- * Access to free online safeguarding training

To be eligible for this role you will need the following:

- * You will need hold the right to work in the UK
- * Provide specific reference details
- * Have an enhanced DBS certificate on the update service-if you don't have this you can apply through us

This is an opportunity to work at a great school in the East Midlands and have an organised lifestyle. We are offering great rates of pay and lots of support.

I am keen to speak to any newly qualified teachers who will be interested in securing a full-time post or supply work from September. Please apply above and I will be in touch shortly.
