You will be providing consultation for services and direct support for children, young people and their families. As a member of the team, you will also participate in providing a traded service to schools and academies, work with pre-school and vulnerable children, and undertake a range of statutory duties.

You will be part of a team of Educational Psychologists with a strong commitment to continuous improvement and to offering the highest quality of person-centred services to children, young people and families living in Thurrock.

As the ideal candidate you will:

- Registered with the Health and Care Professions Council as a Practitioner Psychologist
- A commitment to promoting inclusion through your work with children, families, schools and other professionals
- A capacity to respond creatively to change

In return we offer:

- Opportunities to deliver Educational Psychology creatively, in different contexts, and to explore new ways of working
- A well-established and highly regarded EP service

- Regular supervision, opportunities for case discussion and peer support
- A commitment to CPD, professional and personal development
- Flexible working arrangements and encouragement of a healthy work/life balance
- The opportunity to participate in service development and transformation in a rapidly changing environment

· Generous local government pension (employer contribution 16.1%)

* Existing SPA points will be honoured following confirmation from your current employer.
