Do you want to gain experience or develop your teaching skills in an international environment? Do you enjoy working with young people? Then this might be the job for you! EF is searching for English Teachers (TEFL) on the Isle of Wight for the upcoming summer. This would be the perfect job to boost your CV by gaining experience while working in an international company! In this role you will plan, prepare and deliver the EF academic programme through structured and interactive lessons and ensure a high level of customer service and student satisfaction, while being supported by an experienced academic team. What will I be doing?

In this role, you'll plan, prepare and deliver the EF academic material through structured and interactive lessons

You'll ensure a high level of customer service and student satisfaction while being supported by an experienced academic management team

What does my day-to-day look like?

Facilitating testing during the course, including scoring tests

Lesson planning and preparation before each class

Teaching classes every weekday following the EF methodology

Classroom management

Daily liaising academic team to discuss progress & ongoing lessons

Monitoring daily attendance and keeping up to date records and paperwork

Attending all teacher meetings

Ensuring the EF behaviour code is followed by students at all times and inform management immediately if there are any issues or problems

Dealing with problems and emergency situations should they arise

Who will I be working with?

On the Island we deliver both activities and academics to our young travellers. Our team consists of Activity Leaders and Language Teachers supported by an experienced senior management team. We are a mix of both local and international staff with a lot of experience between us!

So, what's required of me?

Enthusiastic, organised and a natural leader

Responsible, approachable and friendly

Have the ability to create a positive learning environment

Have the right to live and work in the country of employment

Complete fluency in English

A TEFL qualification is desirable and EF could provide sponsorship for a TEFL course for the right candidate

Great! We're always open to new ideas and new ways to give our students the best possible experience and your work history can help us to achieve that. Never done anything like this?

Don't worry, full training is provided before your contract begins and we'll ensure you have a smooth onboarding process with us. We have a huge number of resources for our summer staff that helps you grow into the role with ease! Ready to take the next step? Submit your application and we'll be in touch soon!
