ERP Test Engineer

Role: Test Engineer Oracle ERP

Location: Remote (Occasional site visits)

Rates: Outside IR35 Up to £300p/d

We are working with a multi-office and location business that are looking to hire a test engineer to work on their ERP implementation. The team is implementing an Oracle ERP system across the UK franchise and need of a test engineer on an initial 6 month contract.

The team need experience in;

Test Engineering experience

Experience of ERP testing - ideally Oracle (other ERP's considered).

The role will be predominantly remote but there may well need to be visits to sites during the contract for relevant technical meetings.

If you're available immediately, have ERP testing experience in abundance then please get in touch.
