Location: Gerrards Cross

Category: architecture-and-engineering

An estimating department is currently seeking individuals to join the Estimating team, focused on delivering tender proposals. This role involves ensuring that tender completions align with survey details and bid specifications, providing comprehensive detailing and cost estimation within specified deadlines. The primary goal is to ensure accurate costing for each project, meeting all essential client requirements. Effective communication with manufacturers, suppliers, contractors, and clients is vital for success in this position.

The ideal candidate will possess a keen eye for detail, excel in communication at all levels, and thrive under pressure. Attention to detail and precision are crucial aspects of this role.

The successful candidate must demonstrate strong communication and interpersonal skills, conscientiousness, initiative, and the ability to make timely decisions under pressure while meeting deadlines. Ambition and enthusiasm for learning new technologies and systems are essential qualities for success in this role.
