Exam Invigilator – Nottingham (NG6)

Are you a detail-orientated individual, who thrives on upholding procedural integrity?

Would you relish the opportunity to work as an Exam Invigilator, overseeing vital processes in a vigilant and patient manner?

Perhaps you are seeking experience in a school-based setting, and see this as the ideal opportunity to gain it: the silent hero of the academic hour?

Ensuring a fair and disciplined environment – one which allows each student the chance to flourish uninterrupted – your role will be pivotal in the smooth sailing of the exam season, ensuring calmness in a period too often fraught with student nerves.

Exam Invigilator – The Role:

To always exemplify keen attention to detail and unwavering professionalism

Ensuring accuracy of registration in line with the strict procedures of examination conditions

You will be responsible for handing out papers prior to the exam in a specific order, and collecting them back at the end likewise

Adherence to AQA regulation, as well as reporting non-compliance to the Senior Officer

Detecting suspicious or erratic behaviour to maintain a fair testing environment and uphold academic integrity

Provide general support to the Examinations Officer in whatever way necessary to ensure smoothness of process

Escorting students to the bathroom if required to do so

Exam Invigilator – Benefits

£450 per week during term time

School-based experience within a single school continuously

Consistent Monday to Friday work pattern (0830 – 1530)

Guided through the application and interview processes by an experienced and dedicated consultant
