Food Account Manager – South Wales

Job Description

An exciting opportunity as a Technical Account Manager at a cutting-edge retail food packing facility in Wales. Join one of the UK's largest Meat Processors, specialising in Beef & Lamb.

The site serves as a retail hub, where meat products are packaged and sold to leading retailers. We're on the lookout for a passionate individual to manage the relationship between the retail site and leading retailers, ensuring the highest standards of Food Safety and Quality are met.

Responsibilities:

As a Technical Account Manager, you'll be at the forefront of the Food Safety & Quality division, working closely with retailers to deliver their specific requirements to the technical account team.

Your responsibilities will include:

You'll be working within our Food Safety & Quality division, managing client relationships and ensuring product quality.

The role offers a mix of Retail Account Management and Internal site quality control.

Working with retailers such as Tesco, M&S & Sainsbury's

Monitoring and improving key performance indicators (KPIs) in collaboration with site teams.

Continuing strong relationships with both customers and internal teams to position the company as the supplier of choice.

Needs to have a strong understanding of the supply chain and current quality food standards legislation.

Working with a team of Technical Account Managers and the Commercial Team.

Package:

£45, per annum

40 hour working week 5 days a week, 8:30 – 5:00

Holiday of 23 days + 8 Bank holidays

Office based + travelling to meet with retailers.

Opportunities for growth and development within the company.
