Graduate Sales Executive

Full training provided

Based in Fareham, near Portsmouth and Southampton

Blueprint Recruitment is looking for a recent or 2024 graduate for an office based sales role as a Graduate Recruitment Consultant. If you are a graduate with an aptitude for sales and you are looking for an exciting team based career working with other graduates, this could be a fantastic opportunity for you.

This position is based at our offices on the waterside Cams Hall Estate business park in Fareham, near to Portsmouth and Southampton. The role will suit an ambitious graduate who wants to work in a fast-paced sales environment where you will have excellent opportunities for quick career progression and the chance to earn an excellent financial package at an early stage of your career.

You will build relationships on the telephone, network with clients and help your customers to fill a range of positions. Through our collaborative team working model you will receive mentoring from managers and support from your colleagues. You will also receive an excellent basic salary with commission and bonuses and incentives on top, so your earnings can increase substantially year on year.

The benefits we offer are:

- A generous basic salary as well as bonus and commission.
- A first year total package of £25- £30K OTE
- A clearly defined career path, including a car allowance scheme after a qualifying period based on performance.
- Comprehensive one on one training with highly experienced trainers.
- An exciting and fun team based working environment
- A private healthcare scheme
- Charity dress down days, early finishes on fridays, incentive schemes, golf club membership, a staff pension scheme, company events, such as Goodwood Races, Christmas & Summer events and team nights out

To apply for this job, you must be a recent graduate or graduating in 2024. You must have the right to work in the UK.
