Graduate Recruitment Consultant

Based in Fareham, near Portsmouth

Blueprint Recruitment Solutions is looking for two additional Graduate Trainee Recruitment Consultants to join our exciting team in Fareham. We are one of the fastest growing recruitment companies in the Solent area and a company with a proven track record with many high profile clients across the UK. These positions are trainee positions for recent graduates and no previous experience is required.

Recruitment Consultants at Blueprint come from a wide variety of backgrounds, so we are interested in receiving applications from graduates from all types of courses, whether Arts, Sciences or Humanities. Our office environment is fast paced and exciting and requires quick-thinking, the ability to work under pressure and initiative.

Blueprint's team of Graduates are enthusiastic, positive and have a determination to succeed. Above all they have confidence in using the telephone and the ability to ensure their natural communication abilities shine through.

The role involves establishing and maintaining strong business relationships with clients as well as sourcing and interacting with professional candidates in order to match them to relevant vacancies.

The benefits we offer are:

- A generous basic salary and uncapped commission.
- A first year total package of around £29K OTE
- A clearly defined career path
- Comprehensive one on one training with highly experienced trainers.
- A team based working environment
- A culture that rewards individual effort and success
- A company car/car allowance in your second year
- Free parking

To apply for this position, you should be a graduate and you must be eligible to live and work in the UK.
