Location: London

Category: other-general

Are you a master of all trades? Do you thrive on tackling diverse challenges daily? Are you ready to be the hero of fixing every household disaster? Our client is seeking a skilled Handyman to become the cornerstone of their mobile team in West London.

As a Handyman, you will handle a variety of tasks including general maintenance across plumbing, electrical, and carpentry domains. This involves changing locks on different door styles, as well as conducting painting and decorating jobs. You will also tackle window repairs like pane removal if it's within your skill set, and replace light bulbs as needed. Additionally, you will be adept at fitting hard-wired smoke alarms and carbon monoxide alarms. You will be responsible for routine and scheduled maintenance across multiple properties, which includes repairing, replacing, and installing fixtures and appliances. Being on-call to promptly respond to emergency issues is part of your role. You will possess knowledge of fire doors and can replace or fit them. Maintaining a high level of quality in all tasks is essential to ensure maximum satisfaction for all customers.

Hours of Work: 40 hours per week, (and 1 Saturday every 3 weeks)

Handyman Requirements:

A full clean UK driving licence

Previous experience working with customers and general public
