Principal people are delighted to be recruiting for a Health and Safety Advisor to join a market leading Utilities and Civil Engineering organisation, who have a varied and diverse portfolio of projects. The client we are working with can provide an excellent level of training and development to a self-motivated candidate with a desire to progress.

The successful Health and Safety Advisor will report into the H&S Manager and will be well supported by an experienced and established team.

This newly created position represents an exciting opportunity for anyone looking to progress into the Utilities and Civil Engineering industry. Or alternatively, if you have experience within this sector, this is an excellent opportunity to join a growing and supportive business.

This hybrid position will be travelling to sites predominantly across South London approximately 3 days per week and have the opportunity to work from home 2 days per week. The role provides flexibility and autonomy to manage your own diary and movements.

The role will be operational and will offer you healthy challenges as you progress in your Health and Safety Career.

The key responsibilities of the Health and Safety Advisor:

Undertake incident investigations and implement preventative measures to avoid similar incidents repeating.

Provide Health and Safety guidance across multiple sites.

Conduct Health and Safety audits and inspections.

Support the Health and Safety Manager.

Drive a positive Health and Safety culture throughout the wider business. The Successful Health and Safety Advisor will hold:

NEBOSH General or NEBOSH Construction certificate or equivalent.

Experience within Utilities, Construction, Civil Engineering or similar is highly beneficial

Our client is also open to all industry backgrounds as relevant training will be provided.

Remuneration and Benefits:

A basic salary of £38,000 - £43,000.

Company car (Hybrid and Electric options) or Car allowance

25 days plus Bank holiday.

Matched Pension Scheme.

Private Healthcare.

Plus additional benefits. This is an urgent requirement and we have immediate interview availability over the coming two weeks. To ensure you don't miss out on this excellent opportunity, please respond to this email with your availability to speak and latest CV.
