Overview of the job

This is a management job in an establishment.

The job holder will be responsible for ensuring all the processes for a coaching and mentoring system including onboarding and outreach work for new recruits is being followed.

The Hub Manager will have responsibility for planning, learning and development. Reporting into the SMT, they will analyse development needs and embed plans to strengthen the capability and confidence of new and existing staff, particularly new prison officers.

Responsibility for establishing a buddying scheme will form part of this role.

The job holder will ensure that provision for ongoing support and advice for new recruits in their first year is in place. They will provide support and advice to help new employees settle in, and ensure new starters understand the learning and development opportunities available to them.

This role will ensure that the new starters experience is positive, making staff feel valued which potentially may lead to improved retention rates. The job holder will also ensure new starters understand the learning and development opportunities available to them in order to equip them with the skills and knowledge they need for their role.

This is a non-operational job with line management responsibilities.

Summary ❖ ❖

The key objective of the Mentoring scheme is to ensure that new recruits have a supportive and smooth onboard experience into their new working environment, providing ongoing guidance and support.

You will be responsible for offering the possibility to commence the process of culture change within the prison, instilling positivity and resilience in new recruits. within a challenging environment ensuring high standards of professionalism, decency, safety and security.

Mentoring/coaching skills are highly desirable and successful candidates can be offered the opportunity as part of their personal development to study for formal qualifications.

A key measurement for success in the role will be a noticeable uplift in new staff retention.

Responsibilities, Activities and Duties ❖ ❖

The job holder will be required to carry out the following responsibilities, activities and duties:

❖ ❖ ❖ Responsible for establishing and managing a buddying scheme ensuring that deadlines are met and work is completed accurately and assigned.

❖ ❖ ❖ Responsible for ensuring that all new members of staff have a named individual who stays in close touch for at least their first 3 months and provides information, practical help and encouragement on a less formal basis than the mentors themselves.

❖ ❖ ❖ Responsible for ensuring the hub meets its requirements to provide a fully centralised on-boarding service to all new staff within the prison. This includes facilitating a local buddy scheme, working with Invision where required, to ensure all new colleagues have a buddy.

❖ ❖ ❖ Responsibility for planning, learning and development. Reporting into the SMT, will analyse development needs and embed plans to strengthen the capability and confidence of new and existing staff, particularly new prison officers.

❖ ❖ ❖ Coordinate the induction and training for new recruits by liaising with relevant teams ensuring appropriate processes are in place including induction timetables are set and met.

❖ ❖ ❖ Complete quality assurance checks on the mentoring scheme products and process to ensure they are completed, sanitised and disclosed in line with policy.

◆ ◆ ◆ Obtain, review evaluate the effectiveness of the mentoring scheme processes. Brief and provide advice on the mentoring scheme processes and meet organisational requirements.

◆ ◆ ◆ Responsible for maintaining contact with the individual as a point of contact and information and helping them to prepare for their new role responding to their queries.
