Description

I am looking to speak with a contaminated land enthusiast for a specialist Intermediate/Senior Geo-Environmental Consultant position in Manchester.

You will be joining a relatively new specialist team within a well-established ground engineering consultancy helping to solve complex solutions for heavily contaminated sites.

As an Intermediate/Senior Geo-Environmental Consultant, you will be desk based, client facing, helping to manage technical projects from inception through to completion. You will have the chance to sit directly under the contaminated land Technical Director and help build and develop the team to support the wider business.

Technical responsibilities as a Senior Geo-Environmental Consultant surround; Phase 1 / 2 technical reports, remedial strategies, MMP's, DQRA's, Modelling and expert advice on complex brownfield regeneration, UK wide.

Intermediate/Senior Geo-Environmental Consultant Specification

Degree/Masters in Geology, contaminated land, science or relative field

5 years + within contaminated land/remediation consultancy

To be a Contaminated Land enthusiast with an ambition to clean up the environment in the most sustainable way.

Understand and updated on current contaminated land and remediation regulations.

If you would like to move into an Intermediate/Senior Geo-Environmental Consultant position and would like to solely focus on complex contaminated land projects, then get in touch.
