Company: Astrum Search

Location: London

Category: business-and-financial-operations

Job Description

Astrum Search is working with a global FTSE listed technology and entertainment business to recruit a new Internal Audit Manager.

You will be joining a high-growth, multi-billion £ turnover business that has ambitious plans for growth, both organically and via acquisition. The internal audit team is highly respected and has vast exposure across the business. The Internal Audit Manager will be responsible for leading end-to-end audits and, as such, experience of leading audits is essential.

Key Responsibilities:

Plan, deliver and report on assigned audits across the international business

Create high quality, commercially focussed audit reports that identify key areas of deficiencies with clear and concise recommendations

Lead multi-auditor engagements, acting as manager for the audit

Contribute to the identification and documentation of key risks

Partner with the business in remediating issues identified and follow up on agreed action plans

Act as a mentor to more junior members of the audit team with a view to up-skill and cross-train in other audit disciplines.

Skills & Experience:

Fully qualified accountant or internal auditor (ACA/ACCA/IIA) with previous experience of delivering complex internal audits in a FTSE (or equivalent) sized organisation.

Ability to work independently with minimal supervision.

Strong internal audit skills and knowledge of professional IIA standards.

Data driven with experience of utilising data analytics.

Strong communication and influencing skills.

This is a fantastic opportunity to join a fast-paced and ever-expanding technology focussed business. The audit plan is broad, and you will be delivering a host of audits across finance, operations, regulatory, and strategic focused projects.

The role is based in Central London with a flexible working policy (2 x per week). Travel is expected to be in the region of 20% in Europe and the USA.
