Kitchen Assistant

As part of our catering team, you are fundamental to the smooth running of the home every day for our residents. Supported by a chef, you will ensure that high-quality meals are prepared according to taste and need. You will take pride in keeping your kitchen environment spotless, ensuring that all tasks are completed to a high standard.

* Always supported by a chef

* Able to work shifts, 7.30am to 3.30pm and also 11.30am to 7.30pm

* 33 hours a week, able to work alternate weekends

The skills you'll need

To join us as a Kitchen Assistant, you will benefit from having some previous experience working in a kitchen environment, but consideration will also be given to an enthusiastic candidate who wants to start in a catering environment for the first time. You will feel at home in keeping the kitchen tidy, completing scheduled tasks and supporting your catering colleagues. You will be happy to prepare simple meals with support from the chef.

* Full training can be provided if you do not have experience

* Flexibility, patience, caring attitude and a real 'people person'

* We do not currently offer any sponsorship opportunities for this role, if you are not a UK resident, you will need to be able to provide a valid right to work

About Us

* A family-run, national award-winning company, based locally to you with nursing homes across Essex, Suffolk and Norfolk.

* Working for the best care provider in the UK (Care Group of the Year – National Care Awards 2023 & 2022, Care Group of the Year- Caring UK Awards 2022, 2021, Best Smaller Care Group in the UK - Care Home Awards 2022, Excellence in Training - LaingBussion Awards 2023 & 2022.

* 100% of our homes are rated 'Outstanding' or 'Good' by the care regulators
