Kitchen Assistant

Bank Kitchen Assistant

Location: Becksid, North Hykeham

Pay rate £12.00 per hour

Contracted hours: 0

ABOUT OUR ROLE

As a Kitchen Assistant you will be responsible for helping to prepare the meals, snacks and drinks for residents within the guidelines set by the Home Manager and Chef / Cook. You will understand and promote the philosophy of choice rights and fulfilment for all residents.

You will get to know the residents and understand their likes and dislikes to ensure that they enjoy their dining experience.

In joining us, you'll also become part of our extended family. You'll work alongside other team members who are passionate about providing a safe environment, as well as warmth and kindness to all those who live and work in our homes.

Becksid is a 57 bed Care Home situated in North Hykeham. The home offers tranquility through beautiful views which often enhances spiritual wellbeing in a comfortable, homely setting.

AND IN RETURN

The Trust is a great place to work; we've been providing care for almost 1, years and we're currently the second largest not-for-profit provider in the UK. Not-for-profit means that we reinvest every penny we make into our residents, colleagues and the care homes we live and work in. Therefore, we offer a great range of benefits, including a competitive salary, training and development.

Here are some of the other benefits you'll enjoy as a valued member of our team:

28 days holiday (including Bank Holidays)

Higher rates of pay at weekends

A workplace pension

Free uniform

Free DBS

Access to our Employee Assistance Programme

Refer a Friend scheme rewarding you up to £ for every recommendation you make who successfully starts working for us

Blue Light Card and "My Rewards" programme, offering you discounts on shopping, days out, restaurants and much more

ABOUT YOU

You'll be comfortable in an elderly care setting, with the ability to relate to our residents in a caring and sensitive manner.

You don't need to have previous formal catering experience, as we'll give you the training you need, although it would be helpful if you hold a Basic Food Hygiene Certificate. What we're looking for is someone who is keen on cooking and takes pride in kitchen hygiene standards. You'll have a positive can-do approach, with good communication skills and you'll be passionate about ensuring our residents receive the best service possible.

You'll be confident in engaging with our elderly residents to understand their individual needs and enjoy being part of the wider team in the home.
