Company: Magnet

Location: Royal Leamington Spa

Category: sales-and-related

Kitchen Sales Designer | Leamington Spa | Salary: up to £32,000 + Benefits

This role will be based in one of our Magnet showrooms, working closely as part of a fast paced, motivated team. With more than 100 years' experience behind us, Magnet is one of the UK's biggest and best known kitchen brands and is part of the wider Nobia group.

Just a kitchen, some might think. But at Nobia, we recognise its deeper essence. It's more than a space - it's the very soul of a home where mornings are greeted, and evenings wind down. It is the place where we connect and unite, share love and memories, recharge and make new ideas come to life. Kitchens set the stage for the stories of tomorrow. Join us in our mission of Designing Kitchens for Life!

For this role the expected salary is £24,000 - £30,000 per year. Please note this role requires a full UK driving license and access to a vehicle.

What you'll be doing

The Greater Picture: At Nobia, we're not just designing kitchens; we're building connections. This role is integral to our journey. As a Kitchen Sales Designer you will be inspiring our customers by working closely with them to create their dream kitchen and supporting them through the full journey, from start to finish.

From the initial conversations in our showroom right through to home visits at Nobia, we strive to create a welcoming environment to ensure consistent delivery of high standards of customer service throughout.

You will be based in one of our Magnet showrooms, working closely as part of a fast paced, motivated team. You will be an integral part of the team, helping to drive sales, meet targets and collaborate on exciting projects.

Your skillset for performance:

At Nobia we focus on three core values: Care – Inspire – Deliver. We encourage an environment where colleagues are dedicated to live these values and put them into practice on a daily basis, that is how we thrive as a company.

As a Kitchen Sales Designer we are looking for an individual with a strong design background who is sales orientated and always willing to go the extra mile. Also, to be successful in this role, you will ideally have the following attributes:

Experience working in a similar, design sales-focused role

Customer service and a personable manner

Target and results driven

Strong organisational and interpersonal skills

Flexibility around working hours

A full UK driving license and access to a vehicle

In our recruitment process we'll decide whether there're enough similarities between your skills and aspirations and the skills and competences required for the role.

We believe you will enjoy working here if you:

Have a creative mindset and a willingness and desire to learn

Feel motivated working in a dynamic, fast-paced environment

Have an open-minded personality and enjoy thinking outside of the box

We are looking for the right person who is going to be an asset to our team by demonstrating their transferable skills from previous experience.

What's in it for you? Why choose Nobia?

We genuinely want your role within Nobia to be exciting, inspiring and rewarding. We offer you a fast-paced but balanced environment with opportunities for growth, whether that's vertical or horizontal, and where your voice is heard. You'll quickly notice how much we value team collaboration, transparency, fun while working and we focus on being an inclusive and great place to work. We are a team that brings our heart to work. And our commitment to quality means working here isn't just better for you - it's better for life! Your journey at Nobia also comes with a range of brilliant benefits, like:

A competitive salary and commission package

£400 guaranteed bonus for the first six months

Personal development plan, access to tools and platforms

A generous discount on our kitchen products

Attractive Pension Scheme

Discounts with various retailers

Our story:

The kitchen is a place for all aspects of life, all times of the day. As Europe's leading kitchen specialist, Nobia strives to lead the way for purposeful designed and sustainable kitchen solutions. We let our 100 years of expertise meet with new habits, trends and techniques. We design, manufacture and sell well-designed, functional and emotionally appealing kitchens that enable a sustainable lifestyle with reduced climate impact. We are a group of 16 strong local brands, produced in our 12 factories. Our community of 5,500 co-workers are driven by our core values Care – Inspire – Deliver. We foster an open, supportive and innovative work environment where we encourage each other to reach our full potential for personal and professional growth - across the group, from the Nordics to the UK, Austria and the Netherlands.
