Company: Barratt Developments

Location: United Kingdom

Category: educational-instruction-and-library

What you'll be doing?

Within the Construction environment, think about buying materials, managing big projects, ensuring health and safety and customer service. At any given time, you'll find us working on some circa 400 developments in both towns and rural areas across the UK, and every one poses unique challenges. Some are from scratch on brownfield sites; others see us adapting existing buildings, like old factories or disused hospitals.

We need people who can bring us fresh ideas and imagination on one hand, and the commercial ability to manage people, budgets and costs on the other. It is testament to the professionalism of our construction teams that for an unprecedented thirteenth year, Site Managers have won more NHBC Pride in the Job Awards than any other housebuilder.

Reporting to the Site Manager, to ensure that all labouring tasks are completed to the highest standard and within the required timescales.

You will be expected to:

Carry out all works on site as instructed by the Site Manager and in line with BDW Standards and procedures

Inspect all on-site signage including all large sale signs, plot signs, safety signs etc. and ensure that signs are always clean and in good repair

Take personal responsibility for health and safety on site and report any instances of breaches to the site manager

Ensure that all protection of fixed material is carried out by the Sub-contractor who fits it, in line with BDW procedures

Ensure that protection of fixed material is maintained to the last possible moment and notify the Site Manager of anyone permanently removing or abusing the protective materials

Ensure compound and welfare facilities are maintained

Ensure all plots under construction are kept tidy by all trades

Walk round all plots under construction on a daily basis and ensure that there are no surplus materials lying about

Ensure all waste across the site is segregated and recycled following BDW group guidelines

Check show home gardens and public open spaces on a weekly basis and remove any item of rubbish which may have blown onto these areas

What you'll need?

To be successful in the role, we are looking for:

Enthusiastic self-starter able to use initiative whilst working unsupervised

Experience of working on large volume domestic house building sites

Health and Safety Awareness

Individual who carries a current appropriate CSCS or partner scheme card

Our Company and Benefits We've been nationally recognised as a 5 star housebuilder since 2009 for supplying high-quality homes for all generations. That's more than any other major housebuilder. It's because we combine the brightest minds, the latest technology, and a genuine commitment to putting customers first. We want the best people in the industry to help us shape the future of building. We have tailored opportunities for apprentices, graduates, experienced professionals and ex-Armed Forces personnel to come and help us stay one step ahead, and build the homes that Britain needs.

We are building an organisation where anyone with drive and talent can pursue the career they want. We are building a culture where anyone, regardless of gender, race, sexuality, disability, background or any other characteristic, can progress and be proud to work for us.

As part of working for Barratt Developments PLC and specifically for this role we offer:

Competitive Salary

23 days holiday

Private Medical Insurance – Single Cover

Choice of Flexible Benefits

Enhanced Family Friendly Policies
