Description

An exciting opportunity is available for recent graduates* and postgraduate students at the University of Chester to apply for the role of Learning Facilitator for the following programme/department:

- Nursing Programme (Faculty of Health, Medicine & Society) (Ref:LFHMS006)

You should be a registered nurse or have another relevant registered health professional qualification such as Art Therapy or a relevant undergraduate*/ postgraduate degree in a similar subject area. We would be particularly interested in employing a person with a postgraduate qualification for this post.

The Learning Facilitator will work in collaboration with academic staff to support the delivery of online lectures, facilitate small group seminars, simulation and skills sessions, tutorials online and on campus, and to support in maximising student engagement, achievement, and progression.

Successful candidates will have an undergraduate/postgraduate degree* in a relevant subject area and will be required to undertake a short training course before commencing the role.

*Students who are in their 4th year of their Integrated Masters in Nursing Programme, and have successfully completed all of their 1st field, will also be eligible. They must have completed a minimum of 2,300 practice hours at the point of appointment.
