Company: Prospero Teaching

Location: Congleton

Category: other-general

Job description

Prospero Teaching are seeking a confident and knowledgeable Learning Mentor to join the team at a large, successful primary school in Congleton. This is a great opportunity for a Learning Mentor to secure a long-term role where they can contribute to the development of the children and be part of a dynamic staff team. The role is full-time, to start immediately and will continue to the end of this academic year.

The school has a generous and positive staff team who work hard to give the children an inspirational and broad experience of school. The children are given a wide range of learning and play opportunities, and are encouraged to be independent learners. You will be required to provide specific support for one child who has additional needs, including autism potentially, although undiagnosed due to the age of the child. You will also be required to work with groups and individuals on learning, play and craft activities, and contribute to the day to day running of the classroom, make resources, carry out assessments and manage behaviour.

This role will involve:

Providing specific support and interventions for children across all curriculum areas

Leading groups in activities in core curriculum areas such as Phonics, Reading, Maths and Writing

Working with individuals on learning and development activities

Preparing resources and areas within the setting

Carrying out assessments and recording information

Assisting in the daily routines for the children

Working with children on range of learning and play activities, indoors and outdoors

Liaising with parents
