Learning Support Assistant

Teaching Personnel are looking specifically for an experienced Learning Support Assistant to join the team, supporting students between 4 and 11 with Social, Emotional, Mental Health Needs (SEMH).

The centre aims to reengage young people excluded from mainstream education with learning, in as normal a school environment as possible. Supporting pupil's transition back into the community and education, with a focus on a child-centred and trauma informed approach. Students are taught in mixed ability and mixed aged teaching groups of up to 8 and teaching staff are reflective and plan accordingly for learners' individual social/ emotional/ mental health needs. Your job as Learning Support Assistant will be to assist in the classroom, work 1-1 and in small groups with students under direction of the teacher.

Ideally you will have experience of working with challenging behaviour within an education setting; however, this is not essential as long as you can demonstrate a commitment to supporting vulnerable students with SEMH needs in a specialist environment.

This role is a great opportunity for those with relevant experience such as:

Those from a background in education, care or the support of vulnerable people; graduates from Psychology, Criminology, Sociology; educators wanting to gain SEN/SEMH experience.

You will need to have suitable references and a DBS certificate (or be eligible to apply).

All applicants will require the appropriate qualifications and training for this role. Please see the FAQ's on the Teaching Personnel website for details.

All pay rates quoted will be inclusive of 12.07% statutory holiday pay. This advert is for a temporary position. In some cases, the option to make this role permanent may become available at a later date.

Teaching Personnel is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.

We undertake safeguarding checks on all workers in accordance with DfE statutory guidance 'Keeping Children Safe in Education' this may also include an online search as part of our due diligence on shortlisted applicants.

We offer all our registered candidates FREE child protection and prevent duty training. All candidates must undertake or have undertaken a valid enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check. Full assistance provided.
