Are you looking to gain hands on experience within a well-resourced SEN school?

We are actively recruiting for a Learning Support Assistant to work within an alternative provision school that supports and educates Children with Autism, Mild Learning Difficulties and Mental Health Challenges!

This is a very diverse 1:1 Learning Support role. You will be working with boys and girls in Year 3 to Year 11, all will have either Autism, MLD or SEMH, potentially a blend of all 3.

This is a full time term time only role, start days available in June or September.

We are interviewing now, with immediate trial days.

Role: Learning Support Assistant

Location: Milton Keynes

Pay: £85 to £90 per day

The key aspect of this role is to demonstrate to the students the value of their education - be it in the core subjects, vocational, sports or creative.

You will be responsible to setting the foundations to provide a safe environment for your students in which to learn and at least, give them the opportunities to make positive life choices.

There is a huge focus on restorative practices and positive re-enforcement.

There is a significant focus on Social, Emotional and Mental Health, LSA roles ideal for aspiring Forensic, Clinical, Education, Forensic Psychologists as well as aspiring Youth and Criminal Justice Officers.

Get in touch with Kenan from Academics for additional information on this role!
