Company: Motus Legal Recruitment

Location: Greater Bristol Area

Category: other-general

Litigation Solicitor, Bristol, Remote working, To £65,000
OPPORTUNITY: Our client is one of the UK's leading professional negligence law firms and they are now looking to expand their busy team of around 15 in Bristol at junior level.
WORK: The team represents a variety of clients from those in professional services such as solicitors, accountants and architects to those in other sectors such as engineering and construction. Your caseload will often be high value and complicated. You will have the support of an established team of experienced solicitors and partners, who will guide and mentor you.
BACKGROUND: Ideally you will be a junior solicitor (NQ-3PQE) and have a proven track record in dealing with general litigation (you don't need to have professional negligence background - just an interest!). It's an excellent opportunity for someone looking to progress their career and gain plenty of hands on experience. On offer is a top market rate salary and benefits package. NQ rate is around £60,000 with 3 days working from home.
