Are you a customer focused Travel Consultant, with experience of tailor-making travel itineraries to key holiday destinations such as the US, Caribbean, Indian Ocean and Australasia? Would you like to work from the comfort of your own home, working sociable hours - no late nights or Sundays?!

If so, this is your chance to secure a salaried, home-based position with our award-winning client, who specialises in offering bespoke holiday packages to a variety of long-haul destinations!

Previous travel sales and GDS experience is essential for these roles and successful candidates will possess a good working knowledge of long-haul destinations, along with experience of tailor-making holidays including multi-sector itineraries. In return, our client is offering a competitive basic salary of £25k plus commission and superb industry benefits such as long-haul familiarisation trips and other industry incentives.

If you're interested in finding out more about these Longhaul Travel Consultant
