Microsoft D365 Support Engineer

Up to £50,000 / UK Based / Remote Working

Dynamics 365 Support Engineer wanted by highly recognised employer. A business which is renowned for its delivery of technology solutions and outstanding employee welfare - very much a people-centric business.

As a Microsoft D365 Support Engineer, you will support solutions focused on Dynamics CRM, Power Platform, and the wider D365 Platform.

Base Salary - Up to £50,000 (experience dependent).

Interviews can be arranged immediately.

Remote working with occasional travel to office for company wide meetings.

Experience and knowledge we seek:

Strong experience supporting Microsoft D365 Solutions including Dynamics CRM and Power Platform.

Good communication and stakeholder management skills.

Commitment to teamwork, quality, and mutual success.

Proactivity with an ability to operate with pace and energy.

Eagerness to learn and develop both technically and commercially.

If you are a Technical Support professional; passionate towards Dynamics 365 technologies, wanting the support from an award-winning employer (who are doing amazing things by the way...), then this role is for you. Apply now with the button below!

If you would like more information on this role, please contact me on my email below or message Logan Browne on LinkedIn.
