Company: Northumberland National Park Authority

Location: Bardon Mill

Category: business-and-financial-operations

About this role

Northumberland National Park Authority is committed to preserving and enhancing the natural beauty, wildlife, and cultural heritage of one of England's most breath-taking landscapes. As part of our dedication to inclusivity and accessibility, we are seeking a passionate individual to join our team as a Miles without Stiles project officer.

Role Overview

The Miles without Stiles project officer will play a pivotal role in ensuring that everyone, regardless of mobility or ability, can enjoy the splendour of Northumberland National Park. This role involves collaborating with various stakeholders, including park staff, local communities, and accessibility organisations, to assess, develop and maintain accessible routes throughout the park.

The remit of this post will be to assess the public rights of way network across Northumberland National Park in order to determine what percentage of the routes are compliant with the nationally recognised 'Miles without Stiles' definition.

Using Geographical Information System (GIS) software and data gathered from desk-based analysis and on-site surveys, undertake an accessibility audit to create a database of the public rights of way network, identifying which sections are currently compliant with the Miles without Stiles definition.

Identifying sections of non-compliant path for targeted investment and path/infrastructure improvement to upgrade these to become compliant with the Miles without Stiles definition, thereby improving accessibility across Northumberland National Park. Paths compliant with the Miles without Stiles definition, will be promoted for use by the public via Northumberland National Park Authority's website and other communications means.
