Motion Graphics & AI Designer

Birmingham

£40,000 - £45,000

A brilliantly creative and hugely ambitious, central Birmingham based marketing consultancy is looking for an exceptionally talented Motion Graphics & AI Designer to join its expanding team.

This agency's approach is unlike any other. They have a model that allows them to uncover the detail of a brand, its audience, what it stands for and then create a powerful brand proposition, brand assets and campaign work that makes it stand out far above the competition. This agency is about doing things differently, boldly and without boundaries, and this is where you come in!

As a Motion Graphics & AI Designer within this super talented agency team you'll be:

- Working on both brand and campaign work for a huge range of household brands along with ambitious up and coming businesses.
- Working really closely with your colleagues, focusing your time on bringing creative to life through motion design and video editing but pushing AI innovation alongside.
- Nurturing creative concepts through to execution, lots of your time will be spent on motion design, along with developing your AI skills and driving it's use within your creative.

This agency is looking for a candidate who:

Is a super talented Motion Graphics Designer who has a passion for AI and is looking to develop and grow this area of expertise.

Portfolio wise, we need to see multi-channel brand and campaign, lots of motion and animation and some AI (AI work could be within your spare time or your work time – it's the skill and passion we're looking for!)

Want to be a part of this agency's unique journey? You can be – apply online to hear more!

This brilliant business is central Birmingham based and team members collaborate together in the office 4 days a week so access to central Birmingham is essential.
