Handy person required for long term interim role in Lincoln

Hays are looking for a Handy Person who is able to work at a public sector high security site in Lincoln.

The role will be working within the maintenance department concentrating on reactive and planned projects within the establishment. Depending on the size of the work you may find yourself working independently or working with a team.

The client provides tools and uniform and will also provide training on keys and radios.

Hours of work are Monday- Friday 39 hours per week

It is essential you are qualified to level 2 or above in CITY AND GUILDS or equivalent and be able to provide proof of qualifications/certificates.

This role is a fundamental part of the organisation and requires you to have good communication skills, be able to follow strict procedures and have initiative to notify senior staff if there are any problems. You will be required to have an enhanced security clearance carried out by the organisation to ensure you are able to work on site. The security clearance will require you to have photo ID such as a valid passport or photo card driving licence

This is a temporary role that will be on-going with potential for permanent work, this job is to start as soon as security clearance has been obtained.
