NPI Engineer, Derby, Derbyshire, Staffordshire

* Are you an NPI Engineer or Project Engineer or Technical Lead or Design Engineer seeking the next step in your career? Are you an NPI Engineer or Design Engineer who is seeking the chance to report into Director level of a fast growth engineering SME (electromechanical focus – DFM, NPI, Technical Leadership).

* Electromechanical design, development, test, prototype, and manufacturing business based near Needwood, Derbyshire / Staffordshire region.

* Fantastic office and manufacturing facilities.

Key to this role is working closely with customers to take products from design / development to manufacture. This will include working at the concept stage for brand new products and the evolution of exiting products to ensure design for manufacture.

Are you seeking NPI Engineer jobs or Project Engineer jobs or Technical Lead jobs or Senior Design Engineer jobs or Principal Engineer jobs in the Needwood, Burton upon Trent, Derby, Derbyshire, Stoke, Uttoxeter, Tamworth, Lichfield, Stafford, Staffordshire, Ashbourne, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Leicestershire region?

We are looking for a candidate who is:

- * A NPI Engineer or Project Engineer or Technical Lead or Design Engineer who is passionate and excited about being able to really make your mark on the design and manufacture of a diverse range of products within a dynamic, rapidly growing, engineering SME.
- * An ability to work closely with customers to lead and influence the design and development of products.
- * Previous 3D mechanical design or electromechanical design experience.
- * Balances product innovation / development with a 'design for manufacture' approach.
- * Demonstrates personal qualities including transparent and accountable, honest, and approachable, efficient and results driven, customer focussed, and solution orientated.

The NPI Engineer opportunity:

- * You will play a key role in the engineering team, reporting directly to the Engineering Director.
- * Management of projects from design, development through to manufacture and future customer technical support.
- * Work closely with customers and internal teams to lead and influence the design and development of products.
- * Deliver quality throughout the product development and manufacturing lifecycle.

This NPI Engineer job is commutable from Needwood, Burton upon Trent, Derby, Derbyshire, Stoke, Uttoxeter, Tamworth, Lichfield, Stafford, Staffordshire, Ashbourne, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Leicestershire region?
