Job description

Permanent Veterinary Surgeon - Edenbridge, Kent

Are you a qualified and RCVS registered veterinary surgeon?

Are you looking to join an established small animal practice?

Are you looking for...

A great salary of up to £60,?

No OOH work?

A generous CPD allowance of £1, with 3 days to attend?

We have an opportunity for a Permanent Veterinary Surgeon to join a small animal practice in Edenbridge, Kent.

The practice is looking for a veterinary surgeon who has good experience gained in a small animal practice, excellent communication skills and the ability to create trusting and dependable relationships with your clients. You will work to a very high standard both medically and surgically in order to provide the gold standard of care to the practice's patients and clients.

This role is full time for 40 hours per week, along with weekends on a rota. There will be no OOH work or on-call duties.

Benefits of the role

The practices provide a high standard of clinical care and prides themselves on having staff members who stand apart from the rest and have a real passion and vision for how they work. They provide ongoing training and support to all team members through dedicated training centres.

All staff and patients benefit from the access to the best diagnostic equipment such as MRI machines and CT scanners and state of the art operating theatres in their nearest 24hr animal hospital.
