Job Details

The Pre-Sessional Programme is run by the University's Language Centre situated within the Department of Languages, Information and Communication. We are looking for tutors to join our team on our 10 and 5-week programmes.

Job Details: Tutors will be required to work a 35-hour week teaching approximately 15 hours per week at our city-centre All Saints campus. Classes cover English for Academic Purposes, critical thinking and academic skills development. Tutors will be expected to give regular spoken and written feedback to students on their progress, conduct and mark assessments, and support students with their Research Project.

Tutors will attend regular meetings, as well as participating in moderation, observations and staff development sessions. Both programmes will include tutor induction.

Dates:

10-week programme

Tutor induction: 17th – 18th June

Course dates: 19th June- 30th August

Assessment period: 2nd – 6th September

5-week programme

Tutor induction: 22nd – 23rd July

Course dates: 24th July – 30th August

Assessment period: 2nd – 6th September

Essential Requirements: DELTA (or equivalent) or CELTA plus a Masters in TESOL or related area; relevant teaching experience; native or near-native command of spoken and written English.

Desirable: experience of teaching EAP at a British Higher Education Institution; experience of teaching on a Pre-Sessional Programme; knowledge of technology in EAP teaching.

Job Salary & Benefits

Remuneration is £29,605 and £32,982 pro rata.

Free on campus accommodation is available for successful applicants residing outside of Greater Manchester.
