Are you looking for a rewarding career where you can make a difference working with pregnant women and providing support and behavioural intervention to help them give up smoking. This is a job for someone looking to make a difference in people's lives and helping them make healthier choices.

About the Role

There are two posts available that will serve the east and west of the county. The postholder will be responsible for offering time-limited, person-centred smoking cessation support and advice in one to one home visits and group settings across University Hospitals Leicester and Leicestershire in order to reduce the prevalence of smoking, especially smoking in pregnancy, in Leicestershire County. You will have a good understanding of the smoking cessation and tobacco control and the barriers that pregnant women experience when giving up smoking.

A DBS enhanced check for a regulated activity is required for this post.

A full, clean driver's license is required for this post with access to a car.

For information on our approach to the recruitment of ex-offenders, please see our .
