Primary Supply Teaching Jobs, Westminster, Southwest London

Are you looking for primary supply teaching in the Westminster area? Do you want the flexibility of 1 to 5 days of supply teaching based on your lifestyle needs?

At Hays Education, we know how hard teachers work first hand, as some of us are ex-teachers. Therefore, for your hard work, we will give you a welcome hello bonus of £250 in high street vouchers once you have worked for us for 20 days. You can use this for a well-deserved holiday or pamper yourself with a shopping spree.

About Hays Education

The primary education team in London have a total of 30 years' experience with some in the team with teaching experience. We understand what it is like in the classroom and will support you all the way through with up-to-date training and a dedicated consultant who will cater to your needs and call you weekly to see how your week has gone.

Your new role

As a primary supply teacher for Hays Education, we will ensure that you get work close to where you live as we want you to be at school on time. We will ask you during the registration process what group year you are the most comfortable teaching. You will be required to follow the planning left by the teacher you are covering and ensure that all marking is completed before you leave at the end of the school day.

What you'll need to succeed

You must have QTS and experience in a primary school setting.

You must have good behaviour management and a commitment to ensure that all pupils are catered for.

An enhanced DBS on the update service or willing to apply for one through Hays Education.

What you'll get in return

A dedicated consultant on hand.

Supply work in your chosen year groups.

Teaching assignments in your local area.

A competitive pay rate.
