Principal Civil Engineer – Bristol

Salary £50,000 - £55,000

A key client of ours are looking to take on a Principal Engineer to join their busy civils team in their Bristol office. This person would be working closely with the Technical Director for the general running of the team.

You would be working in a talented team of Graduates, Technicians, Senior and Principal Engineer to work on a range of development infrastructure projects -they are working on a nice mixture of residential, commercial and education projects.

We require someone who has good, relevant industry experience on detailed design of highway, drainage and infrastructure using:

AutoCAD, Microdrainage and Civil/Site3D, you'd also be managing clients and running your own/your teams projects.

There are fantastic progression routes up the company, and his is somewhere where your career could really kick off.

Salary £50,000 - £55,000

25 days holiday

Ideal central office location
