Mid-Senior Private Equity Associate Opportunity in London Our client, a prominent UK law firm, is currently seeking a Private Equity Solicitor of at least 4PQE to join their highly regarded and growing team. About Our Client Our client stands as a dynamic, collaborative, and commercially astute law firm within the UK legal landscape. Renowned for their dedication to clients, they boast a portfolio of household name clientele and a team of market-leading lawyers. With headquarters in London and additional offices in Bristol, Hong Kong, and Singapore, they offer global support through their extensive network. The firm has a specific commitment to targeting strategic areas, which has led to impressive revenue growth and a reputation for award-winning results. At the heart of their success lies a unique culture that values approachability, personality, and professional development.

Role Overview As a mid-senior Associate within the Private Equity team, you will play a pivotal role in further strengthening and expanding our client's growing Private Equity offering. Collaborating closely with private equity investors, investee companies, and management teams, you will provide expert advice on a range of private equity buy-outs, exits, and portfolio company M&A transactions. With ample opportunities for client engagement and autonomy, you will be encouraged to drive business growth and contribute to the firm's strategic objectives. Additionally, you will benefit from exposure to a diverse range of corporate work, enriching your professional experience and facilitating career development. The ideal candidate will possess: Approximately 4-7 years of PQE with a specialisation in private equity law within a highly ranked law firm. Strong project management skills, capable of efficiently guiding transactions from inception to completion. A proactive approach to business development. Please apply for more information.
