Procurement Specialist – Stavanger, Norway

Contract Opportunity

Duration, 12 months

Location, Stavanger office and home working

A common trait between leading EPCI's is that they have strong procurement and supply chain departments, and my client here is no different. A leading Norwegian EPCI with global projects, and a growing footprint in not only Oil&Gas projects, but into renewable projects also.

They already have a highly successful procurement team, but due to high demand for deliverables in 2024 now seeks to make the addition of a Senior Procurement Specialist to continue their high level of performance.

They seek someone who has proven previous experience in a similar procurement / logistics environment, oral and written Norwegian / English language, and strong computer skills ideally including SAP.
