Production Supervisor

Production / Manufacturing | Leyland | Start date: 05/02/2024 | Full Time |

Permanent

We are looking for a Production Supervisor to join our state of the art production facility and play a key role supervising and leading on of our Production Teams who are proudly making the Dr. Oetker and Chicago Town branded pizzas.

Dr. Oetker and Chicago Town pizzas have been manufactured for over 30 years at our Leyland site where we care about people and offer well paid long term permanent jobs with plenty of generous benefits and opportunities to train and develop. We are as proud of our hard-working friendly culture as we are of the fantastic market leading pizzas we make

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES:

You will be part of a dedicated Production Team, ensuring the smooth running of the production environment, via the motivation and development of the Production Team.

Key responsibilities include:

Responsibility for the manufacture of high quality standard products, identifying and resolving/escalating issues as they arise to minimise downtime and conducting investigations of customer complaints to identify root causes.

Ensuring the efficient utilisation of materials and monitoring stock levels, utilising SAP if required.

Conducting regular performance reviews and appraisals with team members managing performance through the setting of effective goals, identifying training and development requirements and managing any identified performance/absence issues.

The provision of accurate record keeping of the team in relation to absence, holiday, adherence to health and safety standards and training data.

Maintenance of labour costs through effective head count allocation, the completion of relevant cost control documentation such as WIP, OEE, material consumption. Identifying any deviances from standards and working with the Production Manager to resolve.

Responsible for identifying, promoting and supporting the implementation of continuous improvements in your Production area relating to quality, health & safety and team development etc.

WHAT YOU BRING:

At Dr Oetker we believe that our employees play a key role in our success. To help shape our future you will be a confident communicator with a personable and professional manner, you will have the ability to interact and relate to all levels of colleagues and to build strong trusted working relationships both within and beyond your area of work.

Ideally you will have previous supervisory experience, gained in a production facility, preferably within a food or FMCG environment or a relevant qualification up to degree level and be seeking your first people management position.

Formal qualification and experience in Health & Safety, Quality, Food Safety standards and Leading Teams is desirable, however full training will be provided if required.

The ability to work within a rapidly changing environment is key, as the ability to work (and stay calm) under pressure, making effective decisions in a timely manner.

Detailed conscious, you will have the ability to follow procedures with a high level of accuracy, demonstrating a keen eye for detail and the ability to apply practical solutions, with excellent planning and organisational skills.
