If you've been looking for a diverse property portfolio to show off and expand your skill set through your project management experience, look no further.

We've been looking for you!

Here's your opportunity to use your hard-earned project management experience and in return, get more than just a monthly salary. Looking for someone with experience in the property sector, to work through RIBA stages of a wide range of projects.

You will get to work in a home-based setting while the company car will be there to get you around the North West of England.

A flexible 35-hour week and 25 days annual leave will help you regain that healthy work-life balance.

With a diverse portfolio of overproperties including residential, offices, churches, social centres, shops and even farms, you're guaranteed to break the monotony while focusing range from refurbishment & remodelling through to extensions and new-builds running projects averaging around £, - £ 1.5million.

Your empathic nature and effective communication skills will finally be put to good use too, as you will be maintaining strong and positive client relationships.

There's never been a better time to join The Salvation Army as they are currently doubling the size of their property team.

What does that mean for you?

You will work autonomously on multiple projects, but also have the support of an experienced property team when you need it.

Not only will you receive support from your team, but they also offer APC support if this is a route you've always wanted to explore.

And what's more rewarding than being able to progress in your career while offering practical help to some of the most disadvantaged people in our communities?
